

LOOK AT THE KINGS ABOUT CHILDREN IN ANCIENT TEXTS

(BOOK QABOOS NAMEH ONSOROLMAALI)

MOHAMMAD REZA TAGHIEH¹ & PARVIN MORTAZAEI²

¹Eghlid Branch, Trainer Faculty Islamic Azad University, Iran

¹Research Scholar & Student in Persian Literature at the University of Shiraz Mystical Orientation, Iran

²Research Scholar, Persian Literature and Language of Mystical Orientation, University of Shiraz, Iran

ABSTRACT

Human communities, the role of literature in great literature and to our elders, as well as in the form of its valuable monuments, their perspectives about various topics of expression. one of the topics that our literature the importance of elders in terms of frequency and time in his works, the question of the rights of children have attention on the finer points of expression and parental and informative about this point. Onsorolmaali is also in the Qaboos Nameh, the beauty of the enumerated tasks. In this study, the most important assignments of parents against children, she has been reviewed. This review was clear that one of the most fundamental rights of children, the principle of proper civility is the basic parenting topics, so he, including the expression of religious civility, moral, social, and civility practices and physical punishment.

KEYWORDS: Civility, Child, Onsorolmaali, Parental Assignments, Parent