

ENVIRONMENT DISASTERS SLUMPS AGRICULTURE, BUSINESS AND GDP OF INDIAN ECONOMY

K. V. NAGESWARA REDDY¹ & B. VENKATA KRISHNA REDDY²

¹Research Scholar, Marketing Manager, G. V. Agrotech, Hyderabad, Andhra Pradesh, India

²Research Scholar, Tech Mahindra Ltd, Hi-Tech City Layout, Hyderabad, Andhra Pradesh, India

ABSTRACT

This paper attempts to share the learnings of an action research project aimed at improving the livelihoods of Indian society. The project has adopted a research on output of resources and their support to livelihood of society. The output provides purchasing power and creates business. Developing business with low subsidies and investment provides affordable prices of commodities and living standards of society. All these increases domestic productivity develops economy and controls inflation.

KEYWORDS: Climate Change, Action Learning, Agricultural Enterprises, Country Economy